Dear Miss Li,

Do you remember me? I'm Jerry. I'm happy to let you know our class won 3rd place in the S1 English Choral Speaking Section of the 66th Hong Kong Schools and Speech Festival this Monday. We received positive comments from the adjudicator and got 84 marks in the competition. We were only 3 marks from the champion who received 87 marks. We did our poem in a lively way with lots of movements and facial expressions. I'm truly delighted that I've a chance to join the choral speaking again this year and even won the 3rd place. I promise I will <sup>work</sup> hard and thank you again for your teaching.

Thank You!

Love,
Jerry

Dear Miss Lo,

How are you? I'm Yummy, I hope you still remember me. You taught me English before. I like my new secondary school and I make many new friends. I want to tell you some good news! Our class won 2nd runner up in the S1 English Choral Speaking Section of the 66th Hong Kong Schools and Speech Festival. I'm so happy about it. You know, we added lots of emotions and body movements to our poem — "Ten Dancing Dinosaurs". That made our performance lively and meaningful. I hope you are proud of me. Thank you for your teaching, I miss you so much!

Thank You!

Love,
Yummy
